

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 2005

■ Girl Leaders — Girls Inc. of the island city is piloting a new leadership and community service organization called In Our Own Hands for girls age 12 to 14 through May. They are looking for both girls and mentors.

In Our Own Hands supports girls in developing leadership skills, connecting with the community, and a sense of responsibility for championing social change by standing up for what they believe in.

Girls will join with female community leaders to create and lead community projects of their choice.

To become a member or volunteer call Tristen Fredrickson at 510-521-1743.