The Fabulous 50s Dance for Daughters and their Fathers

ALAMEDA – On February 4th, the Alameda Recreation and Park Department and Girls Inc. of the Island City will celebrate the special relationship between daughters and fathers or other favorite male role models at Albert H. DeWitt's Officers' Club. The activities for the evening include: music by Strawberry Fields DJ, dancing, arts and crafts, refreshments, and a special memento for the girls.

The 9th Annual event invites girls currently in Kindergarten through 5th grades to attend. Moms and other family members will be allowed to attend the last half hour for free. If you need a "father" or adult male escort for the evening, please contact the Alameda Recreation and Park Department.

Girls Inc. of the Island City is the Alameda affiliate of the national organization Girls Inc. Since 1964, Girls Inc. of the Island City has provided the only program in Alameda designed specifically for girls. Girls Inc. programs "fill in the gap" on issues that parents and schools don't always have the time or resources to cover. At Girls Inc., girls and teens are challenged to explore science, math and computers, examine how money is earned and invested, and to ask questions about and take leadership roles in the world. The organization provides more than 25,000 hours of programming each year to girls ages 6 to 18. Girls Inc. also offers a licensed childcare service called Alameda Island Kids for both girls and boys at seven elementary schools around Alameda, including Bay Farm, Earhart, Edison, Franklin, Lum, Otis, and Paden.
