

Girls Incorporated of the Island City Pro-Bono (Free Services) Wish List

(Last Updated: 07/20/07)

- Experts to conduct market research and feasibility studies about fundraising and girls programming
- Experts to lead our board in a strategic planning process
- Experts to create a business plan
- Experts to develop our planned giving program
- Experts in the field of property management to advise us about issues around renting our facility to other groups
- Experts to offer our staff or board training in areas such as supervisory skills, sexual harassment, discrimination, leadership, public speaking, and team building.
- Graphic design experts to design collateral such as annual reports, newsletters, invitations, posters, and turnkey kits
- Printing companies to print our collateral, such as annual reports, newsletters, direct mail pieces, etc.
- Experts in the construction business to build a dividing wall in one of our classrooms
- Experts to install a new phone system
- Experts to install a new intercom system
- Experts to fix broken windows, paint walls, or do other “handy-person” jobs to tend to our facilities on an ongoing basis
- Property owners to donate facility space in the Bay Area where we can hold our special events or camps
- Caterers to supply the food and service for a special event
- Expert oral historians to create an oral history of Girls Inc. of the Island City
- Experts to start an alumni program

To make a pro-bono (free service) donation, please call (510) 521-1743